April 12-14, 2013

True Wind: (noun)

The direction the wind is actually moving when standing still

Inspiration: (noun)

Divine guidance or influence exerted directly on the mind and soul of humankind

True Wind Weekend:

Find your story not in the wind you're creating, but find it because God
(The True Wind) is inspiring you

The True Wind Weekend will be led by David Clay, DMin, Senior Pastor at Amherst Baptist Church, Amherst, VA, where he has served for two years. The church faced difficulties when he was called to be their pastor. What God is accomplishing at the Amherst church is nothing short of amazing.

David was formerly the pastor of Effort Baptist Church, Palmyra, Virginia. He was a neighboring pastor to our pastor and Doug and his family attended David's church for a time. He has also served churches in Richmond and Virginia Beach. He is married, has grown children and grandchildren.

The weekend will kick off on Friday with a concert by Patsy Godley of Fredericksburg, Virginia. Patsy has served as the Music Director at Ni River Community Church, she was a member of Silver Wings Band for over 20 years. and she currently headlines "Patsy and the Country Classics," a country music cover band. She has been married to her husband, Callis, for more than 20 years.

Baby Shower for Brittany and Chris 3:00 p.m. on April 27

Please join us for a baby shower for Brittany Foreman and Chris Lewis to help them prepare for the arrival of their baby boy "Parker!" They are registered at Babies "R" Us and are in need of clothes and baby essentials for a boy. Please come and join the fun on April 27 at 3:00 p.m. in Parker Hall. Contact Rebecca Mills or Adrienne Harris with questions and to RSVP.

On Saturday, March 9, we met to hear a presentation by Leslie Hardesty from The Laurel Center – Intervention for Domestic and Sexual Violence. Ms. Hardesty gave an informative presentation about the programs and services of The Laurel Center. We presented her with several items from their wish list and discovered other ways that we can help their agency.

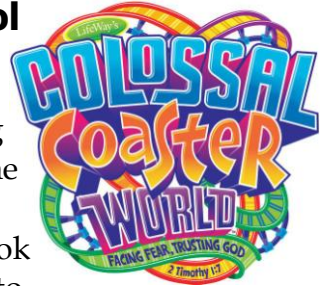

The Center does not have extra money to provide “Birthday Kits” so that mothers can have the items needed to provide their child(ren) with the basics for a birthday. We will collect items for the Birthday Kits throughout April and will schedule a time to assemble them. A signup sheet is located on the Women’s Ministry bulletin board in the Preschool hallway. Our goal is to assemble at least 12 kits. We need disposable 13x9 inch cake pans, cake mixes, icing, writing gel, birthday plates and napkins, hats, party favors, and forks.
